Director Report:

The new circulation system migration to Polaris and Vega will be completed February 26th. This has been a long process and should be an improvement for staff and patrons.

Jami has visited the site several times for the new Byron branch, and has been working with the township on details of building utilities and layout. She also is near completion for ordering the fixtures and furniture. The opening to the public should be sometime in early June.

Jami has been working with Agnew Signs for new outside signage for all of the branches, design and installation should happen in the spring.

Branches have been busy with programs and planning ahead for Summer Reading program.
